

PART
C

Sequels rule local box office

Transformers: Age Of Extinction was No. 1 movie in 2014

C2

Glenn Ong's next move

Is he taking up a desk job at business consultancy?

C3

Marvel's Agent Carter

Captain America's girlfriend takes charge in new TV series

C9

Life!

Japanese master Hiroshi Senju's Falling Water series of paintings is showing at Sundaram Tagore Gallery and Art Stage Singapore.

SOULFUL, SUBLIME

Starting this weekend, the expanded Singapore Art Week promises a range of experiences from entertaining to meditative. HUANG LIJIE and DEEPIKA SHETTY report. C5-8

A FOUR-PAGE SPECIAL PULL-OUT

Who's who: noted artists to catch

HIROSHI SENJU

Who: The Japanese master, 57, noted worldwide for his sublime waterfall and cliff images, has been among the top-selling artists at Art Stage Singapore. In 2013, his work Waterfall, using natural pigments on Japanese mulberry paper, was bought by a local collector for US$450,000 (S$601,000).

Senju was the first Asian artist to receive an Honorable Mention Award at the 46th Venice Biennale in 1995. His work is in prominent museum collections, including that of The Museum of Modern Art, Toyama, Japan and Museum of Contemporary Art in Los Angeles.

In Singapore, he has done notable large-scale public works at the OUB Centre and Tower 2 of One Raffles Place.

What: Sundaram Tagore Gallery presents three recent waterfall paintings at Art Stage Singapore as well as the artist's solo exhibition, Day Falls/Night Falls, at its gallery in Gillman Barracks from Saturday to March 8.

For this presentation, Senju has included two waterfalls that are painted with fluorescent pigments, a medium he first explored in 2007. These paintings – including an immense byobu (a multi-panel folding screen) – are black and white in daylight. When viewed under ultraviolet light, they are in electric blue.

PHOTO: SUNDARAM TAGORE GALLERY

Where: Sundaram Tagore's booth at Art Stage Singapore, Marina Bay Sands Expo and Convention Centre, Level B2, Halls D, E and F.

Day Falls/Night Falls is at Sundaram Tagore Gallery, 5 Lock Road, Gillman Barracks, 01-05, open: 11am to 7pm (Tuesday to Saturday), 11am to 6pm (Sunday). Admission is free.

The artist will speak about his art practice at Art Stage Singapore on Jan 23 from 12.30 to 1.30pm.

Deepika Shetty