

Hiroshi Senju is a Japanese-born, New York-based painter. He is noted worldwide for his sublime waterfall and cliff images, which are often monumental in scale. He combines a minimalist visual language rooted in Abstract Expressionism with ancient painting techniques unique to Japan.

He is a member of the Japan Art Academy. He was president of Kyoto University of Art & Design from 2007 to 2013, presently professor of Kyoto University Art & Design, ambassador of Tokyo National Museum, board member of Ikenobo Bunka Geijutsu Foundation, advisor of The Ritsumeikan Trust, director of Koyodo Museum, member of Masters Committee of L'ÉCOLE of Van Cleef & Arpels, and advisor of The Tokugawa Museum.
